NOTICE TO PROPOSED INSURED REGARDING MEDICAL INFORMATION BUREAU & INFORMATION PRACTICES

In order to properly underwrite and administer your application for insurance coverage, we must collect certain information concerning your insurability. You are our most important source of information, but we may also contact other sources, including medical professionals and institutions, employers and other insurance companies. In certain instances, we may also need to conduct an investigative consumer report. This usually takes the form of a personal interview that is conducted with you in person or over the telephone. If an interview is conducted with someone other than you, we will inform you of your right to be interviewed in connection with the preparation of the investigative consumer report. All information regarding your insurability will be treated as confidential.

You have the right to be told about, and to see (and copy if you wish), items of personal information about you which appear in our files, including the nature and scope of information contained in investigative consumer reports. You also have the right to seek correction, amendment or deletion of information you believe to be inaccurate.

The Company and The Hartford may also make information in its files available to other life insurance companies to whom you may apply for life or health insurance, or to whom you submit a claim for benefits.

In some situations, and in compliance with applicable law, we may disclose necessary items of information to third parties without your specific authorization.

The Company and The Hartford may make a brief report regarding your insurability to the Medical Information Bureau, a non-profit membership organization of life insurance companies, which operates an information exchange on behalf of its members. If you apply to another Bureau member company for life or health insurance coverage, or a claim for benefits is submitted to such a company, the Bureau, upon request, will supply such company with the information in its file.

Upon receipt of a request from you, the Bureau will arrange disclosure of any information it may have in your file. If you question the accuracy of information in the Bureau's file, you may contact the Bureau and seek a correction in accordance with the procedures set forth in the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act. The address of the Bureau's information office is Post Office Box 105, Essex Station, Boston, Massachusetts 02112, telephone number (617) 426-3660.
