

Online Master of Science in Early Childhood Education University of North Dakota

<http://distance.und.edu/degree/?id=msearlychlded>

Strengthen your skills in the education of children ages 0 to 8.

Master of Science in Early Childhood Education

Through the University of North Dakota, you can take advantage of an online Master of Science in Early Childhood Education designed for working professionals who are unable to attend traditional, on-campus classes.

- 33 credits
- Available on a part-time or full-time basis
- 100% online – you are not required to come to campus at any time
- Live Web classes held at times convenient for most students, such as evenings or weekends
- Accreditation: National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE)
- Pay the North Dakota resident tuition rate regardless of your residency

Apply by August 1, 2009.

<http://distance.und.edu/degree/?id=msearlychlded>

Online College Courses for Educators

You may also take a variety of online courses for college credit including:

- T&L 252 Child Development
- T&L 315 Education of Exceptional Students
- T&L 320 Infant/Toddler Development and Learning
- T&L 322 Organization and Leadership in Early Childhood Education

To register, visit:

<http://distance.und.edu/collegecourses/?dept=TL>

*Think your coworkers may be interested in online degrees and courses from UND?
Please share these opportunities with them.*

Questions? Contact

University of North Dakota - Online & Distance Education

Web: <http://distance.und.edu/education/>

Phone: 1.800.342.8230 (toll free) or 701.777.3000

E-mail: UNDonline@mail.und.edu